

Over than 18 years of experience in the Financial Services most of which were spent working for Global Companies including significant startup experiences where I had the opportunity to develop a deep knowledge of Banking market and of its key players, deep understanding of products, credit risk policies an innovative marketing solutions

All my efforts they are driven by the "Banking Uberalization concept, a new way of creating value for the customers by combining innovation and realistic solutions, always in a deep Data driven approach driven by Advanced Analytics Keen interest in creativity and design in the pursuit of value creation by combining innovation and realistic solutions in the implementation of successful projects in terms of quality, time and costs Huge expertise as Fintech enabler deep into the Fintech and financial startup ecosystem in terms of service platforms, data providers, AI Machine Learning accelerators and incubators.